352 Book Reviews the two histories results in a work that can be critiqued as was Brahms's Piano Concerto No. 1. The two principle voices are simply not sufficiently integrated. Brahms masterfully resolved this problem with his Piano Concerto No. 2. Hope-fully, Spyropoulos will do the same in his next ambitious project. Janusz Duzinkiewicz

The Book. Some of the book was a bit outdated, which was quickly evident by the archaic Raspberry Pi 1 pictures in the early chapters. However, looking online shows there is a third edition available that is updated for this. If this product was still in production, I would expect it to come with the third edition.
