Awaken 1 Katie Kacvinsky

Katie Kacvinsky's debut novel, Awaken, takes the reader to the year 2060, when every aspect of life has become digitalized. People hardly go out anymore; they have confined themselves to their homes after tragic incidents in the past and live through their computer, socializing only in online communities.

Awaken (Awaken, #1) by Katie Kacvinsky

Interestingly enough, the story is also about all the beauty and nature this society has lost. With a need for technology that borders on the pathological, and a complete abandonment of anything natural for that which is safe, controlled, and digital, this cover is a natural fit (pun intended) for Katie Kacvinsky's Awaken.

Awaken by Katie Kacvinsky, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

Can love exist in a digital age? It's 2060, and American teens are educated at home via DS—digital school. Few venture outside their comfortable virtual worlds, but 17-year-old Maddie leads a life even more confined than most. She's been grounded for years—punishment for serious digital misbehavior—and despite a sympathetic mom, her dad, architect of the DS system, won't let Maddie off ...

Katie Kacvinsky (Author of Awaken) - Goodreads

The question over technology and how big a role it plays in our lives is at the very heart of the novel Awaken by Katie Kacvinsky, a lightly dystopian tale set in the not-too-distant future, in a world not that unlike our own. Awaken tells the story of 17-year-old Maddie, whose technologically based life is shaken when she meets the mysterious Justin. Up until now, Maddie's been fairly content living a solitary life, going to school through online "Digital School" and socializing ...
