The relationship between reading and writing is a bit like that of the chicken and egg. Which came first is not as important as the fact that without one the other cannot exist. A child's literacy development is dependent on this interconnection between reading and writing.

The relationship between reading and writing

From birth, babies and children are gathering skills they'll use in reading. The years between ages 3 and 5 are critical to reading growth, and some 5-year-olds are already in kindergarten. The best way to instill a love for and interest in reading is to simply read to your child. And yet, many parents don't.
